Sitting here listening to the wind howl outside my window and it sounds much colder than it really is. A lovely reminder of the approaching holidays and the magnificence of God's gift to us. Join us for the 1640 Walk team consecration at DSUMC. You know the deal, bring some yummy food to share and that pilgrim you haven't seen in awhile so we can pray over and bless Shana's team as they prepare for The Best Walk Ever. Remember to return the Tuesday after to walk to welcome all the wonderful ladies and share in what God has done in their lives.

"Fourth Day Forward"

Is God Calling You To Work a Team? But you aren't sure your ready... or you are nervous... Come, follow me," Jesus said. Mark 1:17

"Come, follow me." That is what he said to the Peter and Andrew. Then he walked on a little further and called James and John, the sons of Zebedee. I know, he said to Peter and Andrew, "I will make you fishers of men." You may be reading this and have the fear that the Lord will want you to be a fisher of men. Peter and Andrew knew how to fish. So, that is what he would show them how to do with men. Please don't get stuck there in fear.

Go back to the first part, "Follow Me." The first thing he asked from us was to follow Him. Following requires something from us. It requires us to believe in Him. It requires us to trust Him. It asks us to put our faith in the fact that He will lead us where H e wants us to go and ask us to do what He needs us to do. Paul will later write how as a part of the body of Christ we are given gifts. We are to be His body, alive and well, at work here on earth in his physical absence. What we learn is that not everybody is a fisherman, or a pastor, or a teacher, or one with the gift of healing. Yet, we who are his body have answered that first call to follow Him. Be available. Hear His call. Go.

If you feel called to work the inside team on an Emmaus Walk, submit your application. God is calling you... not us. Do not fear of giving a talk, not being a bible scholar, or that you are not equipped. If God is calling, answer the call. He will equip you with the appropriate "spirit gifts." All fears will vanish knowing that God is in control. During "team formation and meetings" you will get a clear understanding of the role God has chosen for you. All through the walk preparation and walk weekend you will be blessed and washed in God's Grace. How awesome.

Lord, let us have the courage to follow when you call. Then let us trust you with all our hearts. Gene Sueltenfuss
